The future: degrees of certainty ✨

Modal verbs and adverbs

We can use modal verbs (such as will, might, may or could) and adverbs (such as probably and definitely) to show how sure we are..

Very sure :

People will definitely work from home more in the future.

Robots definitely won't replace all human jobs.

Almost sure

We'll probably finish the project by tomorrow.

He probably won't have enough time

Not sure

I might go to the party, but I'm not sure yet.

He hasn't studied much, so he might not pass the exam.

note : 'When you are not sure, we can also use may, could and may not.

However, we don't usually use could not to talk about the future..

present tenses after if , when
,befor and other time word

1. the first conditional ✨ if clause main clause
if we have time, we'll go and
see sarah

a. notice that we use a present tense in the if clause and a future form in the main clause. this form is often called the first conditional, we use this for something that might happen in the future.

b. we can also use other future forms or a modal verb in the main clause.
if the weather's good, we're going to play tennis later.
if you're very good, i might buy you an ice cream.

c. we can change the position of the if clause and the main clause.
i'll tell you if anything unusual happens

2. when, as soon as, before, etc..

a. we also use a present tense after when and as soon as to talk about things we are sure will happen in the future.

when we get home, i'll show you our new kitchen

b. when i as soon as

i'll phone you as soon as we arrive

i'll phone you when we arrive

c. before-after

remember to turn off all the lights before you go.

after-graduate, i'll take time off to think about my future.
